KENTUCKY CROP REPORT.

CONDITIONS OF CROPS AND LIVESTOCK
SEPTEMBER 1, 1899.

Replies were received this month from 148 correspondents, representing 100 counties.

WHEAT.

Threshing has progressed in the Northern and Western States of the winter wheat belt without developing any change from conditions previously reported. The crop is a light one in yield and considerably below the average in point of quality.

Spring wheat harvest in nearing completion and some threshing has been done. In addition to the injury to the crop in Minnesota and the Dakotas by the hot winds, further damage by hail and wind storms has occurred. The loss being total in a number of counties in Minnesota and South Dakota. Rain during the latter part of August has interfered with harvesting and threshing in North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota and Nebraska, causing sprouting shock and stack and binning of the standing grain. The yield from threshing is reported disappointing, rarely exceeding fifteen bushels per acre.

In Kentucky the weather was generally favorable to threshing, and no reports of sprouting grain are received. The quality holding up to the excellent grade promised earlier.

Considering the favorable indications for a higher future market the crop is being marketed freely. Reports show but 57 per cent of crops in farmers hands September 1, as compared with 78 per cent on September 1, 1898. Preparations for seeding the next crop is well advanced, although work is now suspended in a number of counties on account of a second drought. Forty per cent of fall plowing was completed September 1.

CORN.

In a number of counties, especially in the central section, the rains ceased at a time when early corn was at the stage when early corn sustained such injury, and unless rain comes soon, may prove even lighter than early corn.

In the Western counties the rains continued longer, and late corn will make a full average crop. Some early corn is being cut. Late corn will not be safe from danger before October 1.

The condition for the State, as a whole, averages 73, which is the average on August 1. The condition September 1, for the past two years, was, September 1, 1898, 70; September 1, 1897, 88. The Western section shows the highest average condition, 81, an improvement of four points during a month. In the Central section the condition is 65, and for the Southeastern section it is 76.

In a number of the extreme Western counties "army worms" threaten total destruction of late corn.

TOBACCO.

Tobacco has greatly improved during August, and while the improvement was checked to some extent by the cessation of rains, the outcome is very satisfactory. The condition September 1, averages 78, an improvement of nine points during the month. The condition September 1, 1898, was 90; in 1897, 80. In the Western section the condition averages 76; in the Central 73, and Southeastern 84. The Western condition is materially affected by damage from vast numbers of worms, which are reported more numerous than ever before known. It is estimated that 16 per cent of crop was housed prior to September 1, which is 9 per cent less than was housed by same date last year.

HEMP.

The estimated average yield of hemp per acre is 675 pounds. The average yield for 1898 was 850 pounds. For 1897 the yield was 700 pounds.

LIVESTOCK.

Sheep—The number of breeding ewes is estimated at 90 per cent. of the number in 1898. There has been a substantial increase in the Central counties, many of which report an increase of 25 per cent over last year.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

Many brilliant ornaments adorn the hair.

Cycling costumes of gray linens are very ornate.

Some white felt cycling hats have black brims.

The newest pocket-book is in turtle form, and hangs from the belt.

Some of the new hats are startlingly big, and flare dreadfully around the face.

For little boys just escaped from baby clothes, Best & Co. show charming little suits with navy uniform as foundation. They are so touched up with accessories in the form of large collars, draped silk waistbands, puffed breeches, etc., as to be very charming.

The fashions of next season will bear but little resemblance to the style of to-day.

Waite effects will be all the rage. Bows, flying draperies, and flounces are already appearing.

Most of the autumn colors are exceedingly fresh and lively, many of them suggesting the pompadour period.

The latest thing in a bodice front is of checked silk with sleeve cuffs to match.

Many effects seen in dress trimming are simply adaptations of embroidery stitches.

A dress of warm brown cashmere bodies front and sleeve cuffs of checked silk in two shades of brown.

Moonlight blue is a new Parisian shade. It suggests a moonlight night most beautifully.

EVERLYN CABLE.

DeWitt's Little Early Riser permanently cures chronic constipation, biliousness, nervousness and all the ills of the system. Small, pleasant, never gripe or hurts. "Famous little pills." Perry & Thomas.

AN ELEPHANT PRESS.

"Talk about newspaper work. Why you fellows who work on modern papers with plain setting up into the hundreds of thousands of dollars don't know anything about it," said a superannuated editor.

"Let me tell you something about enterprise. It was during the Civil war down in Tennessee. I was running a weekly and Grant kept everything out. There wasn't a sheet of paper in the town, and our Washington handpress had broken, the casting necessary to make it work was somewhere on the road, with Grant's army between us. But I got there. A fellow smuggled a wagonload of iron done up in paper bags. The rest was easy. There was a stranded circus in town. It had been there a year, and I used the elephant for a press. I put the form on the ground and placed a four foot plank across it. The elephant's keeper then caught the brute and set down on it, and we got twenty-eight first-class impressions, two more than our circulation required."—Berlin, Md. Herald.

"They are simply perfect," writes Rolt. Moore of Lexington, Ky. "DeWitt's Little Early Riser, the 'famous little pills' for constipation and all the ills of the system. Never gripe, Perry & Thomas."

AN OPEN WINTER PREDICATED.

This early all winter in the upper part of the State points to open winter, says the Louisville Post. The husks on the corn are thinner than usual, and this is taken as a sure indication of warm weather until late in the winter. Birds that go south with the first approach of winter have begun repeating their nests built this spring, showing they will stay in this region until late in the fall. The fur of the chipmunk and squirrel, which is heavy just previous to a hard winter, is found to be thin. Many farmers place great reliance upon these signs, which have been handed down from father to son. They will not harvest their corn until later than usual this year, and many have not begun cutting their winter wood.

"Best on the market for coughs and colds and all bronchial troubles; for crop it has no equal," writes Henry R. Whitcomb of Chicago. "One Minute Cough Cure. Perry & Thomas."

GOEBEL AND TEMPERANCE.

The attitude of the religious bodies at Owensboro, Shelbyville, and possibly some other places in the State, toward the gubernatorial nominee of the Democratic party, Mr. Goebel, does not seem to be well taken. In the first place, the opposition seems to be based entirely upon Mr. Goebel's position on the Robert's temperance bill, introduced in the last Legislature. He opposed its adoption. But it is not claimed that his opposition was based upon his disbelieved in the principle involved. In fact, allegations of that character could not have been set forth, as it is a well known fact that Mr. Goebel is a total abstainer, and it is natural to assume that he is a believer in the principles he practices. In view of this fact, ministers of the Gospel would not accuse him of favoring intemperance or of opposing a movement intended to control or abolish the liquor traffic except from proper motives. They have not done so; they are not truthful.—Kentucky Advocate.

IN WEST KENTUCKY.

[Clinton Democrat.]

Rev. J. M. Flat, a venerable minister of the Methodist church, who enjoys the love and confidence of many people, has just returned from a tour of the West. He says that the Democrats in Goodwin's precinct are solid for the ticket. Goodwin is a Democratic stronghold and always does its duty. In 1896 Bryan got 294 votes at Hugo's Store, besides 51 in Polo, thus placing the district in the lead of all others in the county in Democratic votes—a position in the column it will not doubt strive to maintain this year. Capt. Williams, of Cairo, Illinois, claims to be the only Democrat in the district, and is in town Monday and wore on his coat lapel a Goebel button. He said that the Democrats of Illinois were astonished that there should be any dissatisfaction in the party in Kentucky with a man as Goebel, the nominee. The Illinois Democrats look upon him as not only one of the brainiest men in Kentucky, but as an incomparable leader who should command the undivided and enthusiastic support of the people.

"What's the news in Madison?" was asked of Elder Joseph Ballou, who returned from his preaching appointment yesterday. "Goebel's going to be the next governor, if all the States are like where I have been," was the laconic reply.—Stanford Journal.

A PROCLAMATION OF ECONOMY!

FOR THE FALL AND WINTER SEASON IN MEN'S AND BOYS

CLOTHING

We are prepared to clothe you with the Lowest-Priced, right-made, absolutely all-wool clothing in America. Rightly-made, as it is of the famous "Vitalis" Brand, the only Ready-to-Wear Clothing Tailored on a strictly scientific basis in clean, well ventilated workrooms. Perfect fitting and wear-resisting, because the inside, the "Vitalis," the very life of the garment is carefully made in the expenditure of time and thought, and is a decided contrast to the tailoring seen in ordinary Ready-to-Wear Clothing. The fabrics we show are of the very newest designs and will be seen this season. Many confined exclusively to us, in the face of the above facts.

The most extraordinary feature combining our great offerings is, that we can and do sell our clothing at less money than elsewhere.

How can we afford to sell such high-grade clothing for less money than elsewhere? Our answer is pure and simple: Ours is a modern store, constructed strictly on progressive plans. Our clothing is sold on the smallest margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business.

The more clothing we sell, the greater our purchasing power, the lower our prices, that's the story in a nut-shell.

Mrs. Boulanger Hamilton, the accomplished modiste, will return to Richmond, September 26, to begin her fall and winter trade. Her rooms will be at the Emory House, formerly the Henderson House. Her prices will be moderate, and style, fit and elegance are assured. The Mme. is up-to-date in everything pertaining to ladies' and misses' apparel, and that she is an artist has been proven beyond question. She wishes to thank the ladies of Richmond and vicinity for their past patronage and earnestly solicits a continuance of same, and cordially invites them all to meet her at above named place. Sept. 25

Company Organized.

The officers of the newly incorporated "Central Kentucky Cigar Manufacturing Company," are as follows: President, Dr. C. H. Vaught; Vice President, W. S. Hunter; Secretary and Treasurer, Gabriel H. Chenier; Manager, Fred A. Miller. The capital stock is $5,000. A first-class cigar and twist tobacco factory will be conducted. Mr. Miller is an old cigar maker, and for a year or more has been conducting a factory here that turned out high grade cigars, used home grown tobacco, and gave employment to a number of hands. The new company will go into the manufacture of tobacco and cigars on a more extensive scale, and it will be the duty of our citizens to give the enterprise their support and patronage. If you smoke, smoke home-made high-class, pure, guaranteed tobacco.

Big Prices For Big Bunch of Boy's Books.

Eight hundred head of fine beef cattle, belonging to J. C. Caldwell, Esq., McDowell, C. P. Cecil and G. W. Dugan, were sold last week at 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 cents per pound, total of nearly $60,000. This is said to be the largest and best sale of the year in Kentucky. The purchasers were Brown & Co., of New York, through W. B. Kidd.

Colonel Caperton in Oil.

The many friends of Col. J. W. Caperton are a unit upon the subject of the excellence of the oil portrait of that gentleman, which has been on exhibition in the Moberly show window. Their opinion is that it is a speaking likeness, as perfect as the brush could portray, certainly the finest portrait ever exhibited here. Col. Caperton's pose is a characteristic one and his expression is so natural that the handsome gift frame seems to encase the original. It must be gratifying to Col. Caperton that no word of criticism has been uttered, but that every one praises the portrait in every detail. It is the work of that famous artist, Mr. A. O. Reveaux, of 502 1/2 avenue, Louisville.

More Light on The Town.

While the circuit court is getting light on the case in the Electric Company, the citizens are petitioning for more light on the town. The six arc lights that are in use already, do a great deal of good in the already lighted part of the city, but would require two gas pipes and an arc light to render travel safe in several portions of our city—for instance on Fifth street, between C. D. Chenault's corner and Muncy's residence. The Council promised to light this cavern a year ago. Meanwhile one-fifth of the population of Richmond are without light to guide them along this dark and dangerous thoroughfare—dangerous because of the narrow elevated footwalk that is out of repair.

Brown on Top, Taylor Underneath.

The CLIMAX has on exhibition a Brown campaign button that should be seen by all who do not yet think that the bolting ex-Democrat is running in the interest of the Republic. The button is the work of a Republican artist, and is a picture of Taylor, the republican candidate for governor, which is proof positive that Brown is running in the interest of Taylor, if any doubt remained of a proposition too patent at most for controversy.

City Ordinances.

Whereas the city of Richmond, Ky., in July, 1894, issued bonds of said city to the extent of $25,000 to secure funds for erection of a public school building, and whereas a part of said bonds are optional after July 1, 1899, and may be redeemed by said city. Therefore be it ordained by the City Council of Richmond, Ky., that bonds number 1, 2 and 3 of aforesaid issue of 1894, for the sum of one thousand dollars each be paid and taken up by the city and the holders thereof are hereby notified that aforesaid bonds number 1, 2 and 3 will be paid at the office of N. W. Harris & Co., 31 Nassau street, New York City, on September 20, 1899, at 12 o'clock m., and they are hereby called upon to deliver same for payment and are notified that no interest will be paid on same after that date.

CLAUDE SMITH, Mayor.

R. A. BARLOW, City Clerk.

Tore The Post to Pieces.

The Louisville Post is delivered here to anybody who will accept it, free of charge. On Thursday last a copy was handed to a well known citizen in our presence, when this conversation took place:

"What does this mean, boy?"

Boy—"It is a copy of the Louisville Post."

Boy—"I don't take that paper."

Boy—"That's all right. This costs you nothing."

"Very well, its worth nothing, so here she goes"—where the aforesaid citizen tore the folded paper into strips and dropped them at his feet, remarking: "I have no use for traitors in the garb of righteousness."

Nowadays traitors are probably no less than 200 to 300 copies of the Post left on private doorsteps in this city, and we see by the papers that this true all over the State. Who pays the freight? Not Brown, not Johnson, not Brock, nor Whiggish.

Complimentary Benefit to Mr. Hubert.

Rev. T. S. Hubert has consented to deliver his brilliant lecture, "A Home of the Standard of the Song, or Home, Sweet Home." New stories, both humorous and pathetic, have been added since the lecture was given last March.

The lecture will take place in Masonic Temple Hall, at 8 p. m., on next Friday evening. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents. This is Richmond's tribute to a popular minister.

Child Killed to Death.

A more terrible death to a child is hardly conceivable than that from a horse kick. Sidney Oldham, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. Tom Oldham, near this city, had been playing in the yard where some horses were grazing, and when a member of the household went to drive the horses out he discovered the body of the little girl lying in the weeds where the horse had kicked her into insensibility. Death ensued two days later, although consciousness returned after a surgical operation. The parents have the sympathy of all in this awful calamity. The funeral occurred at the home and it was remarked at the time that there never was a larger funeral concourse over a child than this one. Mr. Oldham, who is one of the most upright and industrious citizens of Madison, and his wife, who was a Miss Bauman, are plunged in grief that is pitiable to behold.

A Big Production. A Pullman Car With Thirty People. Company to Organize Here.

What promises to be one of the largest theatrical organizations that will tour the South this season is being organized in this city and will open here early in October. The company will be under the management of Messrs. R. Himebaugh and Nat. Riess, both of whom are well known as progressive men of sound business judgment.

About thirty-five people will be carried. The play to be presented is called "A Jay From Jayville," one of those hilarious novel comedies which cannot but be successful. A special feature will be made of the band, which will consist of 18 pieces, and the parade to be given daily will include 25 people (all made up as farmers) which is undoubtedly the largest parade ever given by a show of the kind.

Messrs. Himebaugh and Riess have purchased a Pullman palace car in which the company will travel. It arrived here last Friday and has been placed on the Mill track where scores of visitors have been entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Riess. This car is certainly a model of elegance, being fully equipped with all the modern conveniences for which the Pullman cars are noted.

Mr. Riess says he will be glad to entertain his friends in the car, and that the 9 a. m. until 9 p. m.—continuously—and no doubt many will accept the invitation.

A long tour has been booked which will include all the principal cities in the South, and judging from what is known of the character of the company, the business like manner in which the preparations are being conducted, and the capital that is behind them, a very successful season can safely be predicted for "A Jay From Jayville."

Mon. W. B. Smith is all Right.

The changes made by the State Committee in the speaking appointments of Hon. W. B. Smith, of this city, occurring simultaneously with the announcement in the Louisville Dispatch that Mr. Smith would not be asked to speak again after his utterance at Ovingville, gave rise to some quarters to the report that the committee no longer desired the services of an orator who would publicly announce his willingness to be "hanged to the nearest limb any man who would attempt to falsify the returns of the election." For several days there was a twitter of reports from Brown men hereabouts with having been turned down by the Goebel committee for making that bold assertion, and now the Pantagraph rushes to the front with a certificate of good character for this supposed disgruntled Goebeler, because he gave up the contest, conviction possessed by all honest men of all parties.

The Goebel law would be indeed an iniquitous measure and its author unworthy of citizenship were Democratic speakers for a moment to condemn the outcast spoken of by Mr. Smith, and in the language he employed. But Mr. Goebel nor the committee had any reason for rebuking Mr. Smith by changing his appointments and have so explained to him to his entire satisfaction. Accordingly Mr. Smith left yesterday to fill his appointments, with all his old time vigor and zeal for the success of the regular and real in November.

And now since Mr. Smith has re-entered the canvass, the campaign committee approving by letter his appointment at Ovingville, will the Pantagraph and Brownies please be good and will Mr. Smith's continued work for Goebel change the Pantagraph's opinion of him, as follows:

"Mr. Smith can ill afford to give himself deep concern over the action of the Goebels, for this one thing stamps him the superior of any Democrat who has mounted the stump during this campaign. For his stand taken against theft and corruption, he will receive the plaudits of a great and growing commonwealth."

BIRTHS.

Voland—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Voland, of Voland City, are expecting a still-born September 12.

For Jailor, is Mr. Perkins.

Mr. F. J. Perkins, the well known farmer of Baldwin, has been persuaded to make the race for jailor, subject to the action of the Democratic party. His ancestors were Democrats, his people are Democrats, and all future generations will uphold the banner of that party with the same zeal as his forefathers. Mr. Perkins is also from Tates Creek, the fountain head of Democracy, and his name will arouse the boys to great activity. Remember Mr. Perkins.

Public Sale of Real Estate in Richmond.

On Friday, September 22, at 2 o'clock, p. m., on the premises, corner of High and Oak streets, I will offer my residence, a large and commodious place, fronting 90 feet on Oak and 264 feet on High Street. The house is comparatively new—painted recently and new roof. The stable and carriage house are very convenient, opening on the street. At the same I will sell one or two fine building lots, lying parallel with the lot on which the house stands. WM. CROWE.

The Band Concert.

The concert by the band Friday night was as opportune in time as it was excellent in character. The University had just opened its doors and hundreds of students, perhaps with homesickness dulling their senses to the charms of our city, were awakened and refreshed by the music of our splendid band. Besides this, the concert was enjoyed by the visiting gentlemen of the Hill Top Gun Club, of Bourbon, who had passed a day of continuous shooting out at Turkey's park. Weekly concerts of the band are strictly first-class.

Mr. Coy Accepts.

Mr. N. B. Coy has accepted the Democratic nomination for County Judge, unanimously tendered him by the County Committee last week. The honor was highly unsought; thus the office "sought the man, and not the man the office." Consequently it is the duty of every Democrat to give Mr. Coy the most loyal support. He is worthy, competent, courteous, and would make a fine official. His career as a Magistrate, and as a citizen, render his selection a wise one, and he will win as sure as the "idea of November roll around."

The Fairview Seminary.

At Gaithersburg, Maryland, eighteen miles from Washington City, is conducted by Dr. Chas. H. Waters. A full corps of cultured lady teachers give a full English course of study, with Latin, French and German; music and voice culture under the New England conservatory system; drawing and painting in water colors and oil; elocution and physical culture. The school will open September 19, 1890. Some young ladies from near Richmond are going Sept. 17.

Mr. Nicholasville Democrat, is canvassing this section selling Bryan's book, "Republic or Empire," making Democratic speeches and distributing Hooper literature. He writes as follows:

"I left for Valley View next morning where I spoke that afternoon. On Monday night I started in at Mt. Lebanon, in Jessamine county, thence to Miles Ferry, to Posey, to Edenton, to Round Hill, to Kirtsville, to Silver Creek. I was advised by Bryan's book, Republican or Empire, giving out Goebel buttons and taking a poll of these political degenerates known as Brownies. They are not even inventing. I found Robt. Reagan wearing a big Goebel button of course, and Messrs. Walker, Dr. Middleton and others had Goebel buttons on their hats. I did not see a Brownie with but one exception from the time I left Nicholasville till I got to Richmond. At Silver Creek I heard of one or two; saw my Republican friend, E. G. Parrish, and the colored orator, George, who said he was a sure and pleasant remedy for coughs, loss of voice, and all throat and lung troubles. Price 25 and 50 cents. Parag. & Thomas, Sept. 13.
